Cream and honey on the nose, along with super-lifted lemon. Unusual style, oxidized and nutty, Riesling character is there in the background. Waxy, rounded with gorgeously beautiful fresh acid. Bright, vivid, salty and dry. – Tina Gellie

A Note on Sustainability

In contrast to organic and biodynamic certifications, sustainability applies not only to the growing environmental challenges of our times, but also the social and economic issues we face around the globe. While overlapping with organics and biodynamics in some areas, sustainable practices generally extend beyond agricultural practices and their effects on the environment and share these core pillars:

The Environment Farming practices that preserve the land for future generations through soil conservation, biodiversity enhancement, energy efficiency, and water and waste management.

The Economy Business practices that are profitable, fair to employees, and promote stable, long-term growth.

The Community Promotion of workplace equity and diversity alongside the cultivation of positive relationships with community stakeholders.

Winery Spotlight / Il Colle, Tuscany

Il Colle 2019 Brunello di Montalcino / 94+pts

The 2019 Brunello di Montalcino entices with a dark and floral bouquet as a whiff of exotic spice and dried violets give way to hints of black cherries and dusty earth. It's cool-toned and sleek with silken textures yet lifted in feel, casting mineral-drenched wild berry fruits across the palate as a wave of tantalizing acidity adds tension and mouthwatering freshness. Nuances of blood orange and tart raspberry mingle through the long and structured finish, yet despite all of its primary depths and complexity, the senses are left thirsting for more. The Brunello di Il Colledi Carli was refined for 40 months in 50- and 30-hectoliter Slavonian oak casks. This is stunning, to say the least.

Il Colle 2021 Rosso di Montalcino / 92+pts

The 2021 Rosso di Montalcino is a total pleasure on the nose, blending cloves and allspice with dried sage and crushed black cherries. It's juicy and supple with soft textures and vividly ripe wild berry fruits, all propelled by zesty acidity. Violet inner florals cascade throughout. This tapers off with a gentle spiciness and crisp tannins. A tinge of tart cranberry puckers the cheeks and calls the taster back to the glass for more. Beautifully done. Verging on the title of Baby Brunello, this matures for eighteen months in 50- and 30-hectoliter Slavonian oak casks. – Eric Guido
